

Certificate of Professional Competence for Goods Vehicle Operations

Max Number of Delegates: 20

Duration: 12 Days including exam

Length of Certification: Lifelong

qualification Accreditation: OCR

Who Should Attend

You are required to hold a Goods CPC if you wish to become a nominated Transport Manager in the respective field.

Course Aim

To obtain a Goods Certificate of Professional Competence you must pass the following units:

Road Haulage CPC

Unit R1 - CPC (Goods) Multiple choice

Unit R2 - CPC (Goods) Case study

Training Methods

A two week intensive course or two days a week course is offered. Both options are fully supported by an online learning portal.

Locations

Cardiff & Swansea.

Course content

- Civil and commercial law
- Financial management
- Access to the market
- Technical standards
- Technical aspects of operation
- Operator licensing
- Routing & scheduling
- International operations
- Vehicle selection
- Type of loads i.e. Animals, ADR
- Practice papers and case study revision material

Additional Information

The open book case study exams are set by OCR and are held at COTS exam centres generally on the first Friday of March, June, September, and December. We offer online exams with instant results for unit R1 (Multiple Choice).

This case study consists of a 2 hour 15 minute exam, with a max of 60 marks available. The pass mark is 50%.

